

Jesus came to...

- ...do the Father's will (John 6:38)
- ...serve rather than be served (Mark 10:45)
- ...seek and save lost people (Luke 4:18)
- ...proclaim good news of the kingdom (Luke 4:43)
- ...give others life in all its' fullness (John 10:10)

"As the Father has sent me, I am sending you."
—John 20:21b (NIV)

Love God passionately. Love others radically.

...so that Christ's kingdom becomes tangible in our homes, neighborhoods, city, and world.

Community. Mentoring. Mission.

Barnabas

Acts 13:2–4

Churches that are big on mission...

- ...root mission in worship
- ...value personal callings
- ...think "kingdom"
- ...have figured out how to do IEERA

Invite. Equip. Evaluate. Reflect. Affirm.

We'll know we're getting there when...

- ...our people are seen on the front lines of our city's greatest needs
- ...we start to look more like servants than spiritual consumers
- ...our community leaders look to us for solutions
- ...we define our success by the size of our impact
- ...we never run short of stories of life transformation
- ...the good news we proclaim becomes truly good news
- ...we raise up a new generation of Christ followers with the audacity to believe they can actually change the world for Christ
